

Code of Conduct for Allus Club Players

These codes have been made by the club members and involve all who wish to come to club training;

- I will be on time to the session or any matches. If I am going to be late or I cannot attend then I will let one of the coaches know as soon as possible.
- I will respect the coaches, umpires and anyone involved in the game, during training and at matches.
- I will treat everyone the same regardless of their age, race, colour, religion.
- I will not bully or take unfair advantage of another athlete, coach or volunteer.
- I will be nice to everyone.
- I will wear the appropriate kit for training and remove any jewellery before the session.
- If I have long hair I will make sure I have it tied up.
- I will cut my nails short before training sessions and matches.
- I will not chew during training or games.
- I will let my coach know if I take any medication.
- I will not laugh at anyone in training or in matches if they make a mistake.
- I will try my hardest in training and in matches and give 100% effort.
- I will listen to the coaches and officials at all times, and will not argue or cause others to argue with the coaches, officials, umpires or volunteers.
- I will stay within the Sports Hall until someone collects me or inform the coach if I am making alternative arrangements to get home.
- I will not use any Social Media technology (Facebook etc.) to bring the game into disrepute or make any inappropriate comment about a fellow athlete, coach, official, volunteer or All England Netball.
- I will abide by the representative of the group, who sits on the committee for Allus and inform her of any problems in the sessions or changes I would like in the sessions.
